

Companies are in need of a comprehensive leadership development landscape comprised of impactful and interconnected leadership development programmes that serve the organisation's strategy. Both HR and L&D professionals are faced with the challenge of developing coherent leadership development landscapes that are aligned to corporate culture, leadership competencies and changing organisational needs.

CLP is offering a unique two-day workshop focused on the process of building comprehensive learning architectures within an organisation's leadership development landscape. Participants have the chance to build their organisation's specific landscape and programmes with the help of peers and experts.

TARGET GROUP

Experienced L&D and HR professionals who want to be proficient in conceptualising and designing comprehensive and impactful LD landscapes and programmes.

OBJECTIVES

Using corporate strategy, culture insights, leadership competencies, corporate needs and objectives to customise LD landscapes and programmes.

Creating detailed LD landscapes and programmes using a tangible 12-step design approach and incorporating state of the art LD learning trends, interventions and tools.

Knowing how to create strategic RFPs (requests for proposals) and learning how to select possible professional external support based on relevant selection criteria.

NETWORKING

We expect HR and L&D professionals from DAX30 companies and SME's. Networking and learning from each other is our focus.

RESULT

Create and take home your individually designed LD landscape that builds on your specific organisational strategy, needs and culture.
