

MASTERING CHANGE

GET PEOPLE 'ON BOARD' AND MAKE CHANGE STICK a virtual classroom experience

MASTERING CHANGE is a virtual classroom experience where you collaborate with others to better understand how your particular change impacts your stakeholders, business and organisation. With peer support, you will derive and simulate actions and interventions that help you to make impactful decisions at work.

We created MASTERING CHANGE because we believe that all organisations have to change constantly due to an ever-changing business environment. And so every great leader needs to be able to master change. Great leaders know how to create the right support network, to use the right tools and to make a difference.

AND SCALABLE

MASTERING CHANGE creates a trusting learning environment that maximises sharing and creates deep exchange between participants. MASTERING CHANGE maximises learning transfer with its design unique to the virtual world, taking advantage of modern collaboration technologies, online simulation and facilitation techniques. MASTERING CHANGE is not a boring theory and PowerPoint session but is about simulating real change cases, so that participants can make a real difference. MASTERING CHANGE is easily customisable and rapidly scalable using readily available cloud-based, mobile technology applications.

WHO IS IT FOR

This virtual classroom experience works best with a slightly bigger group of 10-15 participants to create multiple opportunities to exchange, to learn from each other and to use necessary group dynamics. This virtual programme is spread over three days. Each day, we will cover 3.5 hours of sharing, play and learning. Simultaneously, we use online collaboration technologies and the business simulation ACTEE, and communication tools such as ZOOM. It is advised to be able to use two screens in parallel to enjoy the full classroom experience. MASTERING CHANGE is initially offered in English and German, though other languages, such as Spanish, Mandarin etc., are available upon request.

INVESTMENT

We offer MASTERING CHANGE as a company internal training, where leaders meet virtually and learn together. The cost for MASTERING CHANGE is €3,350.00 per training. ActeeChange licenses are charged separately.

FLOW

One week before the first workshop you will receive a code of conduct to read and a short instruction video on how to use ACTEE and ZOOM.

On the day of your first MASTERING CHANGE session, we advise that you join the workshop 20 minutes prior to the official starting time.

This will give you time to meet other participants and start a set-up sequence to optimise your later experience.

Your actual MASTERING CHANGE experience is 7 hours, spread over two days. But this experience does not have to stop after three days. We will give you the opportunity to create a 'bond' with your learning partner to continue your personal journey after the workshop has officially finished. Additionally, you will have access to the online change simulation ACTEE and all its change tools.
